AMERICAN SHIP SUNK BY TORPEDOES!

Officer, Engineer and Six Seamen
Made Prisoners.

A FISHY STORY ABOUT CERVERA'S FLEET.

New York, June 3.—The New York Journal prints, under Cape Haytien date, the following, which is affirmed, and has been cabled verbatim to Europe to day from Santiago:

This morning there was heavy cannonading from 3 to 4 o'clock. An armed American trans-Atlantic steamer tried to run over the first line of torpedo defenses. The Spaniards let her go, but when the American ship, which had already got into the pass, attempted to run over the second line of torpedoes, the Spaniards set fire to one of these and the American ship sunk immediately after the explosion. The officer, engineer and six seamen have been made prisoners. The name of the American ship is unknown, as well as the number of victims.

WHERE IS FOX CERVERA?

A Paris Correspondent Says the Spanish Fleet has Gone to the Philippines.
Paris, June 3.—The Gaulois Madrid correspondent says: He learns on the very highest authority that Admiral Cervera's fleet has never been in the harbor of Santiago de Cuba, and is now approaching the Philippines.

Paris, June 3.—A correspondent of the Gaulois at Madrid telegraphs that he learned from the highest authority that Admiral Cervera has never been in the harbor of Santiago de Cuba, and that the Spanish ships there belong to Captain Villamil's torpedo squadron.

It appears from the information gathered by the Gaulois correspondent that Admiral Cervera, after leaving the Cape Verde Islands, "maneuvered so as to deceive the Americans, then started at full speed for the Philippine Islands, where the fleet is to arrive Saturday or Sunday. His orders are to destroy Admiral Dewey's fleet, capture or destroy the American transports on their way to the Philippine Islands from San Francisco. Admiral Camara's squadron may be expected to join Admiral Cervera in the Philippine Islands in a few weeks."

MORE ABOUT THE BOMBARDMENT.

Very Little Damage Done to the Entrance Forts of Santiago Harbor.
(Copyright Associated Press.)
On Board the Flagship Brooklyn, off Santiago de Cuba, May 31.—Port Antonio, Jamaica, June 1.—Commodore Schley determined to test the batteries at Santiago to day and ascertain their location and capacity. At 10 o'clock he transferred his flag to the Massachusetts and went on board. At 1:15 o'clock the Massachusetts signaled the Iowa and New Orleans to form a column and follow. A course due east was followed until the ships were about 7,000 yards from the shore, and then circling until they headed due west they passed, starboard side, by the forts. The heavy thirteen-inch guns of the Massachusetts and the twelve-inch guns of the Iowa were ordered to open on the Cristobal Colon, which was about 1,000 to 2,000 yards inland of Moro, while the New Orleans' large caliber guns were to open on the forts so as to draw their fire.

The narrowness of the harbor entrance and the speed of the ships, which made ten knots, allowed the Cristobal Colon to be a target for only a few minutes. In that time, it is believed, she was hit twice, but not seriously damaged. The entire set of forts, six in number, opened fire, and the object of the expedition was attained. Some modern guns, with smokeless powder, were aimed well, but of all the shots fired, not one did any damage to the ships. The Cristobal Colon replied to the fire, but all her shots fell short. The American ships fired not more than four rounds from their heavy guns, consuming in all fifteen minutes for the fire.

The Spaniards fired more than a hundred rounds, keeping up the fire when the ships were two miles out of range. During the action Commodore Schley occupied a position near the forward 13-inch turret on the Massachusetts and watched the shells go whistling by as the

Mrs. Joseph Glendon was involved, was shot and probably fatally injured by the husband of the woman. Glendon, when he found he could not escape, fired a bullet through his heart.

Correspondents Released.
Havana, June 3.—The English newspaper correspondents, Whigham and Robinson, recently captured on Cuban soil, after having been landed on the coast from a yacht, have been released owing to representations made by Alexander Gillin, the British consul.

PROBABLY A BIG BLUFF.

Spanish Fleet and Sixteen Vessels to Reinforce Cervera.
Kingston, Jamaica, June 3.—The correspondent here of the Associated Press has been informed, from apparently authentic source at Port Antonio, that a Spanish fleet of sixteen warships will be off Santiago de Cuba to-morrow to reinforce Cervera.

Terrific Windstorm.
Aberdeen, S. D. June 3.—The most terrific windstorm in the history of this place struck here this morning. Many windows and minor buildings were wrecked and the Wisconsin house unroofed. Great damage was done to the surrounding country.

CAPTAIN SIGSBEE.

He Tells a Good Story About Cervera Being at Santiago.

New York, June 3.—The auxiliary cruiser, St. Paul, passed Sandy Hook this morning bound for her dock. It is believed she comes for additional armor, guns and supplies.
After visiting Commodore Bence at the navy yard, Captain Sigbee related his reserve sufficiently to say: "I had a target practice right along from the first day I arrived at Santiago, May 22, and while none of my men had been in the service long, I was well satisfied with their work at the guns. On the 25th we captured the Restormel. I knew the Spaniards needed coal very badly and made every effort to see that they did not get it. While off Santiago with Schley I saw two more Spanish cruisers and Schley saw two torpedo boats."

"There is no question they are bottled up tight as can be in the Santiago harbor. I was in no place that I made sketches of their fortifications, which I am sending to Washington. Their guns could easily have reached me, but their batteries made no attempt to fire, for what reason I do not know. It may be the Spaniards did not want to reveal the strength and location of their guns, or they were going to Washington with dispatches from the fleet. As soon as we have coaled and provisioned we shall put to sea again. This country will not be for three or four days. As soon as I arrived outside of the harbor of Santiago there were indications of the presence of Cervera's fleet on the inside beyond the hills. I judged the month of the harbor so closely that it would have been impossible for anything to sneak out without our seeing them. As soon as we arrived off the harbor I announced my presence by a salute, taking as a target a Spanish fort. The fort evidently did not accord me courtesy due to its guns, for its guns remained silent. During the time I was at Santiago, between May 22 and 29, Schley came and went several times, but he did not go to the shore. St. Paul remained off Santiago harbor eight days. May 29 both Schley and myself saw again positive evidence of the Spanish fleet still bottled up inside of the Santiago harbor. When I came up with Schley's fleet, we both signaled fact—Schley to me, and I to him."

FAVORABLE REPORT.

On the Ferguson New Mexico Land Grant Bill.

Washington, June 3.—The senate committee on public lands completed a favorable report on the Ferguson New Mexico land grant bill. The committee accepted the bill exactly as it left the house.
HOW VIEWED AT WASHINGTON.
The Attack of Squadron at Santiago—No Troops Have Departed.
Washington, June 3.—At the navy department Tuesday's demonstration by the squadron at Santiago is regarded as a mere reconnaissance to learn what defenses must be overcome. Naval officers to-day are giving out the impression that an attack on Santiago will be deferred until the troops arrive from Florida.
Excursions to the Pacific Coast This Summer.
The Santa Fe will sell cheap excursion tickets to Los Angeles, San Diego, Reno, and Santa Monica during June, July and August. The summer at the seaside is not only cool and delightful, but it is a most beneficial change from the high altitudes of New Mexico and Arizona.
There is no finer summer resort in the world than Coronado Beach, and in the summer one can stop at this beautiful place at no greater expense than at ordinary places, and at less than half what it costs at Atlantic coast resorts.

Presidential Nominations.

Washington, June 3.—The president to-day sent these nominations to the senate: Volunteer army brigadier general—Col. John N. Andrews, Twelfth United States Infantry; Leonard W. Colby, Nebraska; Roy Stone, New York; Col. Robert F. Hughes, inspector general of the United States army; Lieut. Col. John R. Babcock, assistant adjutant of the United States army; Henry T. Douglass, Maryland.
Charles O. Whittemore, attorney for the district of Utah.

TROOPS AT TAMPA AND KEY WEST.

Washington, June 3.—Assistant Secretary of War, Meiklejohn, telegraphed General Merritt at San Francisco to hasten departure of Philippine expedition. Orders have been issued to leave one transport behind if necessary to insure immediate sailing. Effective measures taken by the administration will shortly render Manila harbor impregnable against any Spanish attack.

WILL SAIL TUESDAY.

San Francisco, June 3.—Orders have been issued by Major General Oles, commanding the Colorado and Pennsylvania troops, now at Camp Merritt, to go on board ships for the Philippines next Tuesday.

NATIONAL LEGISLATION.

Several Important Measures Passed the Senate—War Revenue Measure.

Washington, June 3.—In the senate a bill authorizing the secretary of the treasury to keep certain life saving stations on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts during June and July, appropriating $500,000 for necessary expense, passed. The senate concurred in the house amendment of the bill removing all disabilities imposed by the fourteenth amendment of the constitution.

Consideration of the war revenue measure was resumed.

In a brief colloquy concerning the priority amendments, yet to be considered, Jones, of Arkansas, expressed the opinion that all revenue features of the bill ought to be passed upon before the bond provision was passed upon, because the amount of revenue raised might have a great weight in the determination of some other pending amendment.

REVOLUTIONARY PARTY.

headed at Monte Cristi—All Captured and All Well Kept.

New York, June 3.—A dispatch to the Herald from Puerto Plata, Dominican Republic, says: A revolutionary expedition was landed at Monte Cristi, from Hayti, under the lead of Senor Jimenez, formerly a merchant in New York. The government has been advised of the movement and troops were waiting for the party and all were captured. The leader, Jimenez, was reserved for examination, but General Augustin Morales was shot without delay. President Heredia will arrive at Monte Cristi to-morrow, and it is almost certain the whole party will be executed.

REVOLUTION BROKEN OUT.

Cape Haytien, June 3.—The report that a revolution had broken out in Santo Domingo is confirmed, the supposed Cuban expedition from here being really a departure of Dominican revolutionists.

Dewey Day at Santa Fe.

Great enthusiasm prevailed in Santa Fe on Wednesday, in consequence of the Dewey day celebration. Numbers of people from nearby towns and from contingent mining camps participated. The celebration was held in the plaza and at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon a procession of forty little girls, dressed as United States marines, preceded by the governor's band and Uncle Sam, took the city by storm. The military evolutions of the little marines created intense enthusiasm among the big crowd of spectators. The evening was devoted to patriotic speeches from prominent men of the territory, and a chorus of fifty trained voices rendered the national airs. The celebration, which will be long remembered in Santa Fe, concluded with a superb display of fireworks.

THE WOLCOTT AMENDMENT.

Washington, June 3.—The Wolcott amendment, adopted to-day, provides for the coinage of all silver bullion in the treasury at the rate of not less than $4,000,000 per month, and the issue on account of seigniorage derived of not exceeding $42,000,000 in silver certificates.

The senate agreed to the amendment of the republican minority of the finance committee, substituting the bond provision for greenbacks, as reported by the majority. Vote, 45 to 31.

There seems to be no doubt that it is the purpose of the government to push forward with the greatest possible expedition the military and naval movements against Santiago and Porto Rico. The purpose is to make a movement, overwhelming in strength and numbers, and crush the enemy at every point, so as to bring the war to a speedy termination.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.

Transports with Soldiers on Their Way to Tampa and Key West.

Washington, June 3.—Information has reached the war department that two companies of the engineer battalion from Willet's Point, N. Y., which have been at Tampa, have left for Key West to put their paraphernalia in shape for immediate use in the Cuban invasion. There have been no departures of United States troops from Tampa in addition to those sent to Key West some time ago. Some of the troops may go on transports at Tampa to-day and proceed to Key West.

GOING TO TAMPA.

Mobile, Ala., June 3.—The Second cavalry will break camp at 2 o'clock; one squadron to ship on the transport Matlewman, and the other two on the Stillwater and Morgan. The Twentieth infantry will go on board the Matlewman. These vessels sail under sealed orders, but it is supposed they go to Tampa.

"MOUNTAIN RIDERS" AT TAMPA.

Tampa, June 3.—Col. Wood's regiment of rough riders, officially known as the First United States volunteer cavalry, went into camp to-day west of Tampa. The men are fully armed and equipped and made a magnificent appearance.
